PEI UPSE calls for nominations for Member of the Year!

The PEI Union of Public Sector Employees is calling for nominations for the Member of the Year award! This award recognizes outstanding PEI UPSE members who have contributed to the union through activism and consistent participation in union meetings and committees. The award also recognizes those members who are passionate about the labour movement on Prince Edward Island.

Nomination forms are available at the union office at 4 Enman Crescent in Charlottetown or visit the PEI UPSE website at www.peiupse.ca to print a copy. Nominees must be members in good standing and must be nominated by a member in good standing. Nomination forms must include a written statement supporting the nominee, i.e., outlining the members accomplishments / activism / education and participation within the union. All nominations must be received at the union office by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 28, 2011.

PEI UPSE's member of the year will be announced at the union's upcoming 50th Annual Convention!

Attention Members:

If you know any PEI UPSE members who have recently retired it would be greatly appreciated if you could forward their name, job title and department / place of work. Please contact Tammy Laybolt at the union office at 892-5335 or toll free at 1-800-897-8773.
