

THE Accent

Prince Edward Island Union of Public Sector Employees

Are you concerned about public health Care?

PEI UPSE seeks members to attend a rally in Halifax from July 24-26, 2012.

Halifax is hosting the Council of the Federation this summer (Premiers' meeting), and health care innovation is a key topic on their agenda. Unions from across Canada are joining to host parallel events on the first day of the Council of the Federation for health care stakeholders and the public in Victoria Park, Halifax to remind the Premiers about the absolute importance of public health care.

Get Involved!

PEI UPSE is seeking members interested in travelling to Halifax (July 24-26) to attend the planned events and help raise awareness about cuts to public services and the importance of public health care.

A lunch and learn session will kick off the event from 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. in Victoria Park on July 25. Three informative speakers will be presenting their ideas on innovations in health care. A march will take place at 1:00 p.m. and a clinic run by the Nurses Union will take place between 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.

If interested in attending, please call the union by July 13, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. at 902-892-5335 or toll free at 1-800-897-8773. The union will select members to attend based on previous involvement at rallies / active involvement within the union. Members will be required to car pool and are also required to share hotel rooms in Halifax.
