Day of Mourning

April 28

On Monday, April 28 please take time to remember workers killed or injured in Prince Edward Island and throughout Canada. Since 1993, over 18,000 workers have died from workplace injury in Canada. Workplace injury and illness can be avoided through proper education and enforcement of occupational health and safety laws. On April 28, let's remember the workers whose lives were lost in workplace accidents and attend the Day of Mourning Ceremony at Province House.
