Call for Nominations: Member of the Year!

UPSE is calling for nominations for the Member of the Year award. This award recognizes outstanding UPSE members who have contributed to the union through activism and consistent participation in union meetings and committees. The award also recognizes those members who are passionate about the labour movement in Prince Edward Island.

Nomination forms are available at the union office at 4 Enman Crescent in Charlottetown or on the UPSE website at (www.peiupse.ca). Nominees must be members in good standing and must be nominated by a member in good standing. Nomination forms must include a written statement supporting the nominee, i.e., outlining the members' accomplishments / activism / education and participation within the union.

All nominations must be received at the union office by 4:00 pm on:

Friday, October 22, 2021

For more information contact the Union office at 902-892-5335, toll free 1-800-897-8773, or e-mail peiupse@peiupse.ca.

UPSE Presidential Election Results

Kim Stewart, Chair of the UPSE Presidential Election Committee, reported the results of the 2021 UPSE Presidential Election. She said "Karen Jackson remains the President of UPSE with a final vote of 771 to 495." Kim expressed her thanks to the election committee for their hard work.

Karen Jackson thanked the members of UPSE for supporting her. She also thanked Jim Ryan for a good campaign and said she "looks forward to working with the executive, board of directors, and all UPSE members over the next three years!"

Karen Jackson,
re-elected as UPSE
President
