

Retirement Security Affects Everyone

The federal, provincial, and territorial Ministers are meeting at Crowbush Resort to discuss reform for Canada's pension system. The labour movement is advocating positive changes for all Canadians.

"Rather than lowering the bar for those who have good workplace pensions, as some advocate, we want to raise the bar to provide pension protection and retirement security for all Canadians"

Larry Brown, Secretary Treasurer, NUPGE

Canadians are facing difficult times when it comes to retirement security. Too many Canadians (63%) will enter their golden years without the security of knowing they will be able to live comfortably. Our federal government officials must act to ensure a secure future for all Canadians.

Our Solution to the Pension Crisis:

1. Double the Canada Pension Plan (CPP)
2. Increase the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS)
3. Ensure there are tough pension laws to protect the retirement security of those with pension plans.

All UPSE members are invited to an information session to be held at the Delta Prince Edward on Sunday, June 13 at 1:30 p.m.

We invite all Islanders to the pension rally which will take place at Crowbush Resort on Monday, June 14 at 11 a.m.

Retirement Security is not just a labour issue - it is a Canadian Issue!
